

How does faith help people when life gets hard

Legacy

Prior Knowledge

Previously, we have learnt about different reasons why people choose to believe or not believe in God and how people show their religion to the world. We have also learnt about Humanists and what matters most to them and Christians comparing how they are similar and different. We have also learnt about other religions and how different aspects of these religions are important to people.

My Component Knowledge:

Lesson 1: I can identify ways in which religion can help people.

Lesson 2: I can give at least three examples of what religious believers and atheists believe about life and death

Lesson 3: I can say what Christians believe about how people can gain eternal life

Lesson 4: I can explain some ideas that non-religious people have about death and an afterlife

Lesson 5: I can explain what people believe happens after death

Lesson 6: I can demonstrate the knowledge that I have gained

My Composite Knowledge:

I can explain how religion can offer support to people at different points of life and when life becomes difficult. I can identify ways in which different religions can offer support to people.

My Powerful Knowledge:

I can identify and explain ways in which religion can offer support to people when life gets hard. I can identify how people can look for support in different religions and ways in which they can access help.
