

Valuing Difference

Environment

Prior Knowledge

Year 2— you learnt about valuing difference and what makes us the same.

Year 3—you learnt that there are many different types of family and friendship.

Year 4— you learnt that conflict can be managed through negotiation and compromise.

Year 5—you learnt about making friendships and that some friendships ending is normal. You also learnt that you should always try to demonstrate respectfulness when responding to each other.

My Component Knowledge:

Lesson 1: Same or different?

Lesson 2: Unkind, tease or bully?

Lesson 3: Harold's school rules

Lesson 4: It's not fair!

Lesson 5: Who are our special people?

Lesson 6: Our special people balloons

My Composite Knowledge:

To understand that bullying and discriminatory behaviour can result from disrespect of people's differences.

To learn that all people are unique and we have far more in common with each other than what is different about us.

To learn that respect can be communicated verbally and non-verbally.

My Powerful Knowledge:

To know that there is a real value in being different from one another and that tolerance and respect are signs of a successful community.
