Dear Parents and Carers

Panto Performance at Winkleigh Primary School - Monday 14th November 2022

We have a really exciting opportunity for Class 1 and 2 to join our peers at Winkleigh Primary School to watch a live pantomime performance of Cinderella in school on Monday 14th November.

M&M Productions have been bringing their magical pantos to Winkleigh Primary School for several years and the feedback from children and staff is always really positive, and this year we have been invited to join them! You can find out more about M&M Productions from the link below.
<https://www.magicoftheatre.com/productions/pantomimes/>

We will be catching a coach to Winkleigh in the afternoon to watch the panto, returning to Kings Nympton by the end of the school day. Children will need to wear their school uniform as usual.

Friends of Kings Nympton School have generously offered to cover the cost of transport, but we are asking parents to pay towards the cost of the Panto. The cost is £4.65 per child.

A payment request has been set up in the Gateway for you to provide consent for your child to attend the panto and make a payment by Monday 7th November please.

Should your child not wish to attend the panto, there will be a teacher on site so they will be able to stay at school.

Kind regards,

Mrs C Godly and Mr M Saltearn
